CAUSE

On May 15 and 21, 2008, the defendant submitted urine specimens which tested positive for amphetamines. The defendant reported to our office on May 21, 2008, and was questioned as to the results of these tests. The defendant admitted using methamphetamine on May 12, 13, 14, 19, and the morning of May 21, 2008. The defendant indicated he would be willing to participate in a drug treatment program to address his substance abuse issue. The defendant was directed to enter CRASH, Inc. residential drug treatment program on May 22, 2008. On May 22, 2008, Pretrial Services confirmed the defendant entered the program. On this same date, our office contacted Assistant U.S. Attorney, Randy K. Jones, and defense counsel, Roland J. Haddad, and they noted no opposition to the proposed modification.
